THE FREEDOM TO SUCCEED™

Job posting

Peer Specialist (part-time)

Liberty Healthcare helps to make sure that people with intellectual and developmental disabilities are empowered to live, love, work, learn, play, and pursue their dreams.

Liberty Healthcare is now accepting applications for an available part-time 'Peer Specialist' position.

In this job you will be responsible for:

- Working about 20 hours each week
- Traveling throughout the State of Indiana (day trips / no overnights)
- Meeting with other individuals who have intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families
- Meeting with health and human service providers and championing person-centered principles
- Working with teams to help overcome challenges
- Supporting other individuals who have intellectual and developmental disabilities so they may advocate for themselves
- Working side by side with other Liberty Healthcare team members

You can expect competitive pay and you will be reimbursed for approved transportation expenses.

You are a good fit for this position if you have lived experience of an individual with developmental disabilities.

You should also have the following:

- Experience advocating for yourself and other people who have intellectual and developmental disabilities
- Good communication skills and the ability to form relationships with others
- Flexibility in your weekday daytime schedule
- Willingness to travel throughout the region during daytime hours

This position requires regional travel, so you should have your own transportation resources.

Liberty Healthcare is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Diversity, equality and inclusion are among our deepest-held values. We work to create an environment that attracts real talent and we seek to motivate, inspire and recognize high performance among all employees - regardless of race, color, religion, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, ancestry, national origin, age, marital or veteran status, or disability. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply and will receive consideration for employment.
